Fact Sheet 1: June 2012

Overview

The Principals Australia Institute uses a development framework called the L5 leadership framework for current and aspiring principals and leaders.

The PAI L5 Leadership Framework is an accessible professional development tool for leadership teams and individual leaders.

The L5 Leadership Framework has been designed around five statements about leadership development and how leadership capability is built.

Working with the framework is an easy way to meet the national Professional Standard for Principals.

It is available in different formats designed to suit your needs

- hardcopy books
- through professional development sessions – standard or customised
- as online units

and soon via webinars and media clips.

The L5 leadership framework is used within major national projects on their materials for leaders – including MindMatters, KidsMatter Primary, palnet and Dare to Lead.

Hardcopy PAI Leadership Materials

The basic hardcopy volume is Learn; Lead: Succeed. Learn; Lead: Succeed is to be joined in the second half of 2012 by 4 more books based around the L5 and addressing major issues.

The working titles of the new volumes are:

- Leading Change and Innovation
- Leading Curriculum, Teaching and Learning
- Your best year yet (health and wellbeing for leaders)
- Leading People

In addition we are working on two key volumes with our national professional association partners 'So you want to be a Principal' (working title only and aimed at a secondary audience) and 'Leading for better outcomes for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students.'

PAI Leadership Professional development

PAI offers both standard and customized leadership professional development for schools and other educational and commercial locations.

Each module in our leadership training enables aspiring, emerging and experienced leaders to achieve key aspects of the National Professional Standard for Principals.

Our five PAI standard training days are built around our five key leadership statements

- Leadership starts from within
- Leadership is about influencing others
- Leadership develops a rich learning environment
- Leadership builds professionalism and management capability
- Leadership inspires leadership actions and aspirations in others

We can customize and adapt our training for schools.

Our professional development is linked to our online and hardcopy materials. Training is costed to suit school, regional and association budgets.

PAI Online leadership materials

The L5 Leadership online modules are aimed at principals, executives and middle management, current and aspiring leaders or anyone interested in learning more about leadership in education.

Use the online modules to fit in with your time needs.

The online modules have been designed to have a natural flow, but also can stand-alone.

The free modules are designed to give you an introduction and to show you the possibilities of using the L5 leadership framework to address specific issues and priorities in your school.

Download the foundation module Learn: Lead: Succeed for free

The purchasable modules are organised in groups around each leadership statement of the L5 Framework. Each module has a downloadable activity booklet.

To continue to build your leadership understanding in all areas choose one Module from each of the 5 leadership statements or alternatively ten modules from across all areas.

You can purchase further modules online. Contact us to preview purchasable modules. You may purchase one module at a time or purchase access to all modules for a 6 or 12 month period.
